Mark the end of the presidential election season with the yearly political satirical performance that has been entertaining audiences nationwide for 3 decades. D.C.-based group, The Capitol Steps, known for poking fun at all issues – from the latest headlines, scandals, polls, and politicians – will give its 25th performance to benefit UCM on Sunday, November 13. It will be an act you don’t want to miss!

There’s no better entertainment than entertainment organized for a good cause -- a chance to impact the lives of the most vulnerable residents in Fairfax County. UCM uses funds raised from the Capitol Steps ticket sales to provide social services to residents experiencing financial crisis. This annual performance remains one of UCM’s largest fundraising events of the year, providing support for its food pantry, rent and utilities assistance, literacy programs for youths and adults, an early learning center for infants and babies, and so much more.

Tickets are now available online at bit.ly/UCMCapStepsTix. Sponsorship opportunities are still available. Tickets go quickly, so don’t wait to purchase!
