Help your neighbor while shopping the world!

Your purchases in store all day on Saturday, June 17 and online all weekend will not only celebrate artisans' work from all over the world but it will benefit United Community Ministries (UCM of Alexandria). This local organization has served community needs in the southeastern portion of Fairfax County for almost 50 years. UCM mobilizes the power of community to equip, educate, and empower people to measurably improve their lives. Learn more at ucmagency.org.
